

Coastal Clean-up in Guam

Tristar Guam donated trash bags, cotton gloves, and 5-gallon water bottles as part of its annual support to the cleaning of the beaches around Agat and in solidarity with EPA's island-wide Coastal Clean-up. For the last 20 years, Guam residents have volunteered their time to pick up trash along the island's beaches.

September 20th, 2014