

Tristar unveils 2017 strategic plan

Dubai-based Tristar Transport LLC, a globally integrated liquid logistics company serving the petroleum and chemical industries, will double its revenue by 2017 with the creation of new 'pipelines' or revenue streams from its existing customers and expanding in other geographies, specifically in Asia and Africa. Group CEO Eugene Mayne made this announcement at the recent annual Tristar Leadership Summit held in Dubai where he unveiled the 2017 strategic plan.
