

Road Safety Awareness for Young Students

Tristar Pakistan sponsored a road safety awareness session with National Highway and Motorway Police for young students of The Educators School in Karachi. The school children were given gift packs and valuable road safety booklets.