

Tristar distributes school bags in Haiti

Tristar Haiti launched its biggest CSR project so far with the distribution of backpacks to school children. The initiative covered four institutions in the last week of November and first week of December. The team will continue distributing in January until the 1,000th piece has been turned over. The first distribution was held on November 25 at the premises of the non-governmental organization (NGO) Development For Freedom International (DFI).