

World Environment Day

The whole Tristar global network celebrated World Environment Day by discussing this year's theme, Think.Eat.Save, which is an anti-food waste and food loss campaign that encourages everyone to reduce their 'foodprint.' Some countries also planted trees and implemented energy saving activities. Group CEO Eugene Mayne said: "Let us therefore Think first of the food that we Eat and make an effort to Save resources related to the food supply chain."