

Tristar Group CEO at World Forum in France

Group CEO Eugene Mayne spoke at the World Forum in Lille, France on Responsible Business on 15th November. He shared some Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives Tristar has implemented in local communities where it operates. Mr. Mayne was one of the speakers on the forum on 'Responsible Entrepreneurship: creating a positive image of entrepreneurs, and encouraging young entrepreneurs to contribute to sustainability.' Giving back is also getting back explained Mr. Mayne citing how the company has also benefitted from the goodwill of the people while operating in difficult and often dangerous environments in the developing world.
