

Tristar is Ship Operator of the Year

Tristar has been named Ship Operator of the Year by the Llyod's List South Asia, Middle East & Africa Awards 2019. Tristar was recognized for its "exceptional performance in ship operations and chartering." The award criteria stated that "the business that has best responded to the changing commercial and regulatory landscape through new ocean shipping configurations and port pairings, simplified booking and documentation processes, action to reduce ship pollution and other innovations that have made the supply chain more efficient." Tristar Shipping CEO Chris Peters accepted the award on behalf of Group CEO Eugene Mayne and the Tristar Family.
